

Executive Summary

H-1B RTW Sustaining Your Promising Practices

12/19/2017

Moderator(s): Monica Evans

Speaker(s): Kisha Toppin & Erika Humphrey

As grantees near the conclusion of their project's grant period, many have been seeking ways to continue the vision and mission of their program's promising practices. This interactive webinar was designed to provide strategies that would help support the sustainability of grant program models and promising practices developed through the Ready to Work Grant.

This webinar allowed grantees to:

- Share strategies to sustain your promising practices
- Discuss key steps in the process of planning for sustainability
- Examine the importance of succession planning
- Identify next steps to further your sustainability plan

TA Coaches Kisha Toppin and Erika Humphrey of High Impact Partners discussed ways grantees could continue their program success after the grant period is over through four sustainable strategies;

- succession planning;
- program evaluation;
- maintaining and building partnerships;
- and funding stability.

This webinar was targeted to program directors, managers, service providers, case managers, career coaches and other staff responsible for providing programmatic leadership and oversight to the RTW grant program.

Run of Show

Objectives	2:48
Agenda	3:19
Sustainability Strategy #1- Program Evaluation	5:07
Sustainability Strategy #2 - Developing a Succession Plan	15:52
Sustainability Strategy #3 - Maintaining and Building Partnerships	25:28
Sustainability Strategy #4 - Developing a Funding Plan	37:11
Presentation Take Away - Sustainability Action Plan	45:10
Reminders	51:58