Federal staff from the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration (ETA); U.S. Department of Education’s Office of Career, Technical and Adult Education (OCTAE) & Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA); and U.S. Department of Health and Human Services’ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) discuss shared grantee monitoring for the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) programs. Viewers learn why the agencies developed the Shared Monitoring Guide, how to use it, and other tools and tips that will increase consistency and effectiveness in the WIOA monitoring process. It includes information about how agencies handle compliance findings and technical assistance, where monitoring plans and reports are stored, and more. This is a must see for staff that monitor WIOA state programs to learn about the shared monitoring pilot which begins July 1, 2018.
